Professional Summary

Motivated and detail-oriented professional with prior experience in banking operations at ICICI Bank. After a planned career break from 2011 to 2025 to focus on family duties and responsibilities. During this period, I worked as a home tutor, guiding students with patience and clarity. Thus, discovering my passion for teaching. This experience revealed my natural ability to nurture, mentor, and simplify complex concepts for learners. Now, I am committed to transitioning into a formal teaching career, bringing strong communication skills, organizational abilities, and a deep sense of responsibility to the classroom.
